

Program Information

Volunteer Programs: CCNV provides numerous opportunities for individuals and groups who would like to be more active in their community. By becoming involved with the under-privileged, under-served, poor, or needy, they assist us in providing services to the homeless in the Washington DC area.

During the last 30 years, we have had nearly 200,000 people come through our doors as volunteers. Offering their time, materials, and initiative to help provide services to the area homeless and poor.

Day of Service

Individual and Group: An opportunity for interested and concerned individuals and groups to offer their time and effort to assist us with providing services we do not always have staff available to perform. These services may include receiving and sorting of incoming donations, sanitizing and cleaning of common areas, picking up trash around the building, light moving and carrying, light office work, or perhaps providing instruction in an area of expertise. If your group is considering a project, please feel free to contact us, as we may be able to include or accommodate you in another way.

Scheduling: The majority of these opportunities are available during the week, Monday through Friday, from 10:00am to 4:00 pm. The schedule may also include an orientation program, which includes some of our history, viewing of the PBS documentary Promises to Keep, a Question/Answer and general discussion session. There may be occasional volunteer opportunities on the weekend, but they are infrequent and limited.

Registration: We ask that interested individuals and groups call us to make arrangements for volunteer opportunities at least 7 days prior to the day, or days, they would like to visit us.

Registration Confirmation: You may call, or request to be called, for confirmation of receipt of any payment or other necessary paperwork. You may call us at any time with questions or concerns, Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. Our contact information is listed below.
